All Section (sec.) references are to the Wisconsin Statutes

I. AUTHORITY

A. Municipalities – may grant (approve by licensing authority) or issue (give to applicant) licenses for the sale of alcohol beverages subject to limitations and restrictions imposed by law as follows:

1. Class “A” retailers (sec. 125.25) may sell beer to consumers in any quantity in original packages for off-premise consumption only. They may offer taste samples of beer on premises.
2. Class “B” retailers (sec. 125.26(1), (2), (3), (4), and (5)) may sell beer to consumers for on-premise or off-premise consumption.
3. Temporary Class “B” retailers (sec. 125.26(6)) may sell beer to consumers at a picnic or similar gathering of limited duration, or a single-day, multiple-location event such as a "beer walk". Such licenses may only be issued to:
 - (1) Bona fide clubs.
 - (2) State, county, or local fair associations, or agricultural societies.
 - (3) Churches, lodges, or societies that have been in existence for at least 6 months prior to the date of application.
 - (4) Posts of veterans organizations.
 - (5) Chambers of commerce or similar civic or trade organizations organized under ch. 181, Wis. Stats.

A municipality may issue temporary Class "B" licenses for a single-day, multiple-location event, if all of the following apply:

- a) each license is issued for the same date and times and the licensee is the sponsor of the event held at multiple locations within the municipality on this date and at these times.
- b) an admission fee is charged for participation in the event and no additional fee is charged for service of beer at the event.

4. Temporary “Class B” retailers (sec. 125.51(10)) may sell wine to consumers at a picnic or similar gathering of limited duration, or a single-day, multiple-location event such as a "wine walk". Such licenses may only be issued to:

- (1) Bona fide clubs.
- (2) State, county, or local fair associations, or agricultural societies.
- (3) Churches, lodges, or societies that have been in existence for at least 6 months prior to the date of application.
- (4) Posts of veterans organizations.
- (5) Chambers of commerce or similar civic or trade organizations organized under ch. 181, Wis. Stats.

A municipality may issue up to 20 temporary "Class B" licenses for a single-day, multiple-location event, if all of the following apply:

- a) each license is issued for the same date and times and the licensee is the sponsor of the event held at multiple locations within the municipality on this date and at these times.
- b) an admission fee is charged for participation in the event and no additional fee is charged for service of wine at the event.

5. “Class A” retailers (sec. 125.51(2)(a), (b), (c), (d), and (e)) may sell intoxicating liquor to consumers only in original packages for off-premise consumption. They may offer taste samples of wine or intoxicating liquor on premises. (“Class A” – (cider only) retailers may not make retail sales or offer taste samples of any intoxicating liquor other than cider.)

Note: A municipality shall issue a "Class A" license to an applicant if all of the following apply:

- a) the application is made for a "Class A" license containing the condition that retail sales of intoxicating liquor are limited to cider.
 - b) the applicant holds a Class "A" license issued for the same premises for which the "Class A" license application is made.
6. "Class B" retailers (sec. 125.51(3)(a), (c), (d), (e), and (f)) may sell intoxicating liquor to consumers for on-premise consumption. If the municipality enacts a specific ordinance under sec. 125.51(3)(b) sales may be made for off-premise consumption in quantities not exceeding four liters.
7. "Class C" retailers (sec. 125.51(3m)) may sell wine by the glass or in an opened original container for consumption on the premises where sold. Such licenses may only be issued for restaurants if the sale of alcohol beverages accounts for less than 50% of the gross receipts. It may not be issued to foreign corporations or foreign LLC's.

Note: Issuing a "Class C" (wine) license to businesses that are not "restaurants" (defined in sec. 97.01(14g), Wis. Stats.) such as a painting studio is prohibited. Effective July 1, 2016, "restaurant" means any building, room or place at which the predominant activity is the preparation, service, or sale of meals to transients or the general public. Any license issued in violation of state law is a void license, sec. 125.04(2), Wis. Stats.

8. Provisional retail licenses (sec. 125.185) shall be issued by municipalities. The governing body may by ordinance establish standards under which provisional licenses shall be issued and shall by ordinance designate the municipal official having authority to issue the retail licenses.
- a) May be issued only to persons applying for Class "A" (beer), Class "B" (beer), "Class A" (intoxicating liquor), "Class B" (intoxicating liquor), or "Class C" (wine) authorizing only the activities allowed under that type of license.

- b) Fee shall be established by ordinance, but may not exceed $15.
 - c) A provisional license expires 60 days after issuance or when the person is issued a retail license. The license may be revoked by the municipal official if he or she discovers the holder made false statements in the application.
 - d) A municipal official may not issue a provisional "Class B" license if the quota prohibits the issuance of such a license.
 - e) No person may hold more than one provisional retail license for each type of license applied for per year.
9. Operator's licenses (sec. 125.17(1), (2), and (3)), temporary operator's licenses (sec. 125.17(4)), and provisional operator's licenses (sec. 125.17(5), and (6), 125.32(2)-beer, and 125.68(2)-liquor) shall be issued to individuals 18 years of age or over who do not have an arrest or conviction record subject to secs. 111.321, 111.322 and 111.335 and will be responsible for supervising activities on Class "A" (beer), Class "B" (beer), "Class B" (intoxicating liquor), and "Class A" (intoxicating liquor) and "Class C" (wine) premises during required hours in absence of the licensee or approved agent of corporation/limited liability company. Licensed operators (bartenders) are also required on the premises of Temporary Class "B"/"Class B" licenses. Temporary operator's licenses may be issued to persons employed by or donating their services to, nonprofit corporations. No person may hold more than two temporary operator's licenses per year. New applicants must successfully complete a beverage server training course prior to issuance of the license. The municipal governing body may by ordinance establish standards for issuance of provisional operators' licenses and designate the municipal official having authority to issue them. Provisional operator's licenses shall be issued to persons enrolled in the course and who have applied for a regular operator's license.

They may also be issued to someone who held an operator's license in another municipality and has applied for an operator's license in your municipality.

10. "Class B" winery (sec. 125.51(3)(am), 125.51(1), 125.51(4)(a)1., 125.51(3)(f), 125.53) - winery capable of producing 5,000 gallons/year may sell wine only, for on or off premise consumption. "Class B" winery license does not count against municipalities' quota, and is not subject to "reserve" fee. Winery may have either one "Class A" or one "Class B" but not both; may be issued at the winery or to real estate owned or leased to the winery.

B. The Department of Revenue may issue alcohol beverage permits as follows:

1. Fermented malt beverage wholesaler permit holders (sec. 125.28(1)), may sell fermented malt beverages (beer) only in original packages to retailers or wholesalers (secs. 125.29 and 139.09)).
2. Sports "Class B" retailers (sec. 125.51(5)(a)) may sell intoxicating liquor if the facilities are not open to the general public and the municipality does not issue such licenses or to a club located in a municipality that issues "Class B" licenses, if the club is not open to the general public, was not issued a license under sec. 176.05 (4a), 1979, stats., and does not currently hold a "Class B" license.
3. Sports Class "B" retailers (sec. 125.27(1)) may sell beer if the facilities are not open to the general public. These may be issued only if the municipality does not issue such licenses.
4. County or municipal-owned airport or public facilities "Class B" retailers (sec. 125.51(5)(b)) may sell intoxicating liquor. The permit may only be issued to a designated concessionaire. (A Class "B" (beer) license must be obtained from the municipality in which the airport or public facility is located.)
5. Vessels Class B retailers (secs. 125.27(2) and 125.51(5)(c)) may be issued a permit if meeting the criteria as set forth in the statutes.
6. Brewery, brewpub, winery, wholesale liquor/beer, manufacturer and rectifier permits (secs. 125.29, 125.295, 125.53, 125.54, 125.28, and 125.52).

C. Partnerships

1. Each partner must meet all of the qualifications listed in sections II.A. and II.B.
2. Each partner must be listed on the application.

- D. Wisconsin or foreign corporations, nonprofit organizations and limited liability companies (sec. 125.04(5)(c)) applying for alcohol beverage licenses.
1. All officers and directors of a corporation and members or managers of a limited liability company must meet the qualifications listed under paragraphs 1 and 2 of section II.B. Only one officer of a corporation is required under Chapter 180. Limited liability companies may have 1 or more members.
 2. An agent who is responsible for all activities must be appointed. The agent must meet the qualifications listed in sections II.A. and II.B. The license is not valid until the agent has been approved by the municipal licensing authority (sec. 125.04(6)).
 3. Foreign corporations are not qualified to hold "Class C" wine licenses (sec. 125.51(3m)(c)).

III. FORMS

The department will make each kind of license application that it prepares available to municipalities on its internet site at revenue.wi.gov. It is the municipality's responsibility to copy the forms and use the copies for license applications. (Note: the department does not prepare managers' and operators' license applications.)

- A. ORIGINAL ALCOHOL BEVERAGE LICENSE APPLICATION (AT-106). Use for all new applicants. (Always include the AT-103 Auxiliary Questionnaire along with the AT-106.)
- B. RENEWAL ALCOHOL BEVERAGE LICENSE APPLICATION (AT-115). Use only for those applying for renewal of a license, including 6-month licenses. If there is any change in the business entity, including from an individual to a partnership or corporation/limited liability company, or if a partner is added or dropped, or if a partnership is incorporated, or limited liability company formed, an original application must be submitted on Form AT-106.
- C. AUXILIARY QUESTIONNAIRE (AT-103). Must be completed by all individuals, all partners, and all officers and directors and the agent of corporations and members or managers and agent of limited liability companies making application for a license and be attached to Form AT-106. The questionnaire must also be completed for any successor agent appointed by a corporation/limited liability company, and by all new officers and directors of corporations or new members or managers of limited liability companies applying for renewal, in which case the forms must be attached to the Form AT-115.

- D. SCHEDULE FOR APPOINTMENT OF AGENT BY CORPORATION/NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION (AT-104). Must be used by all corporations, nonprofit organizations or limited liability companies when applying for an original license or whenever a new agent is appointed.
- E. TEMPORARY (PICNIC) LICENSE APPLICATION (AT-315). Must be used by bona fide clubs, chambers of commerce, churches, or organizations desiring to sell beer, and/or wine at a particular picnic or similar gathering.

IV. INFORMATION REQUIRED OF APPLICANT

The applicant must furnish all information requested and respond to all questions asked so the licensing board/council can determine if the applicant is qualified.

- A. Applicants for Retail Beer and/or Liquor Licenses.
 1. Beginning and ending dates of the licensing period must be entered.
 2. The seller's permit number must be indicated in the upper right hand corner. New applicants should contact the nearest Department of Revenue office for an application.
 3. The type of license applied for and appropriate fees must be entered in the box in the upper right hand corner.
 4. The name of the municipality and county must be entered.
 5. The type of applicant, with complete name and mailing address must be furnished. If a trade name is used it also must be furnished. The name on the seller's permit must be the same name on the license (see exception below); a license must not be issued in a trade name. If the alcohol beverage license is issued to a partnership or corporation, the seller's permit must be too; not to the agent, officer, or individual. If the applicant is a limited liability company (LLC) always issue the alcohol beverage license in the legal name of the LLC (not trade name or owner's name). The license must include the following. For a:

- Partnership - the names of all partners.
- Corporation - the name of the agent.
- Limited Liability Company - the name of the agent.

Exception: Some alcohol beverage licenses are issued to an LLC where the business operates as a sole proprietor or single member for sales tax purposes. In such cases the LLC's seller's permit may be issued in the name of the sole proprietor or single member of the LLC. If an LLC applies for an alcohol beverage license and furnishes a seller's permit that is not in the legal name of the LLC, call the department at (608) 266-2776 to verify whether the seller's permit is valid for the LLC.

6. A complete and accurate description of the building or buildings where alcohol beverages are to be stored, sold, or served must be furnished. The physical description on the application must be entered on the license when the application is approved.
7. All questions must be answered by the applicant and the answers evaluated by the licensing board/council to determine if the applicant is fully qualified.
8. All applications must be signed with the signatures properly notarized.

B. Auxiliary Questionnaire

1. A completed form must be attached to each original application for each individual, partner, officer, director, member, and agent.

C. Appointment of Agent (sec. 125.04(6)).

1. Must meet qualifications listed in sections II.A. and B. The agent must be located near enough so he or she can actively supervise the licensed premises.

2. The completed form for any newly-appointed agent must be approved by local licensing and enforcement officials.

V. RESPONSIBILITY

A. Municipalities.

1. Must ensure that required applicants have completed the responsible beverage server training course.
2. Must obtain completed application from each applicant, and record date application was filed.
3. Must obtain completed auxiliary questionnaires as described above.
4. Must obtain completed appointment of agent schedule for each new corporation or nonprofit organization or Limited Liability Company and obtain local enforcement approval. This completed form must also be obtained for all changes of agent, which must be approved by local enforcement officials. A fee of $10 shall be paid to the licensing authority by the corporation or limited liability company for any change of agent (sec. 125.04(6)(e)).
5. Must publish all applications (including renewal applications) as provided under sec. 125.04(3)(g). Publication is not required of temporary Class "B"/"Class B" licenses. The license applicant is required to pay the costs of publication as determined by the Wisconsin Department of Administration (DOA) for publication of legal notices, pursuant to sec. 985.08.
6. Must require applications for all alcohol beverage licenses to be filed with the clerk at least 15 days prior to action by licensing authority (sec. 125.04 (3)(f)).

Exception: This requirement does not apply to:

- (a) Municipalities in Milwaukee County.
 - (b) Applications for temporary licenses under sec. 125.26(6) lasting less than four days.
7. Must enter the date the application was submitted to the licensing authority, which must then determine that each applicant is qualified before granting the license.

8. Must enter the dates the license was granted and issued, and the license must be prepared in the exact name of the applicant with the complete physical description.
9. Must send a list of licensees issued as of July 1, each year (excluding managers, operators and picnic beer/wine licensees) to the Department of Revenue by July 15th of each year. The list must include the name, address and trade name of each licensee, including provisional retail licenses, as well as the type of license held; if the licensee is a corporation or limited liability company, include the name of the agent.

B. Department of Revenue

1. May issue permits to sports clubs, airports/public facilities, vessels, breweries, brewpubs, wineries, liquor wholesalers, beer wholesalers, manufacturers, rectifiers, and wine direct shippers. Permit fees are payable to the Department of Revenue.

C. Licensees

1. Must hold a separate license or permit covering each location or premises.
2. Must frame and post alcohol beverage licenses and seller's permits, allowing the licenses or permits to be clearly read.
3. Must keep invoices for all purchases of alcohol beverages and cigarette and tobacco products on the licensed premises for two years from the date of invoice. Alcohol beverage records may be kept on the licensed premises in electronic form (paper copies are not required).

VI. TRANSFERS

Transfers of licenses are allowed only in the following situations:

- A. Licenses, except for reserve "Class B" liquor and licenses issued under sec. 125.51(4)(v), may be transferred from one premise to another within a municipality (sec. 125.04(12)(a)) no more than once in a license year for $10. A licensee who moves must file an AT-112 (Retail License Transfer) with the clerk of the municipality. These forms are available upon request from the department.

- B. Licenses may be transferred by completion of Form AT-108, at no charge during the license year from one person to a court-appointed receiver as a result of foreclosure or proceedings to avoid bankruptcy, or to a trustee when the licensee enters bankruptcy, or to the personal representative or surviving spouse upon the death of the licensee. If a retail licensee becomes disabled, the municipality may, upon application, transfer the license to the licensee's spouse if that spouse complies with all of the requirements under this chapter applicable to original applicants, except that the spouse is exempt from payment of the license fee for the year in which the transfer takes place (sec. 125.04(12)(b)).

- C. Licenses may be transferred by completion of Form AT-108, at no charge from one partner to another if a partner dies during the license year and the deceased's equity is assigned to a surviving or new partner.

- D. Reserve "Class B" licenses may be transferred by a municipality that has issued at least one "Class B" license to a neighboring municipality (contiguous or within two miles of the receiving municipality). The transferring municipality may transfer no more than a total of three reserve "Class B" licenses. The transferring municipality establishes the fee for the transferred license in an amount not less than $10,000. The receiving municipality must remit the fee to the transferring municipality.

VII. SIX MONTH LICENSES

- A. A Class "B" beer license may be issued for any six-month period in a calendar year at 50% of the regular annual fee, but such licenses may not be renewed during the calendar year (sec. 125.26(5)).

- B. Six-month "Class A" or "Class B" intoxicating liquor and "Class C" wine licenses may be issued for any six-month period in a calendar year at 50% of the regular annual fee, but such licenses may not be renewed during the calendar year (sec. 125.51(9)(b)).

- d) Requirements applying to other alcohol beverage licensees also apply to Temporary "Class B" (wine only) and Temporary Class "B" (beer) licensees. Some of these requirements include:
- i. The presence of licensed operators to serve the wine or beer and/or supervise the service of wine or beer. Licensed operators are persons holding an "operator's license", often called a "bartender's license". Temporary operator's licenses may be issued to persons employed by or donating services to the qualified organization for the event. A person may hold two temporary operator licenses per year.
 - ii. Licensees must purchase all wine or beer from liquor or beer wholesalers or breweries/brewpubs authorized to self-distribute to retail licensees.
4. Applications for Temporary Class "B" (beer) or Temporary "Class B" (wine only) licenses to hold a single-day, multiple-location event should be submitted to the municipality by the qualified organization using the Application for Temporary Class "B" / "Class B" Retailer's License (Form AT-315). The qualified organization should list each of the participating locations, describing the premises, or submit a separate application for each of the multiple locations participating in the single-day, multiple-location event. Either method of submitting license applications is acceptable.

K. Premier Economic Development District:

1. A municipality may by ordinance enacted by at least a two-thirds vote of the governing body designate a geographic area within the municipality as a Premier Economic Development District (PEDD) if all of the following apply:
 - a) The geographic area does not exceed 40 acres and the boundaries of the geographic area are precisely identified in the ordinance.
 - b) no part of the geographic area is physically separated from the rest of the geographic area. (Except for public streets, similar community infrastructure, and waterways, each portion of the geographic area must be contiguous with some other portion of the geographic area.

- c) the geographic area does not include any land zoned exclusively for industrial use or zoned exclusively for single-family or two-family residence.
 - d) The PEDD must have an estimated comprehensive new construction assessed valuation increase of at least $20,000,000 certified by an independent third-party appraiser or marketing research firm.
2. A municipality designating a PEDD may issue up to two reserve "Class B" licenses, with an initial issuance fee of at least $30,000 per license.
 3. A municipality may not designate more than one PEDD.
